Starl1ght joins the Xbox Ambassadors team

Announcements Starl1ght Aug 9, 2022

Hey Ambassadors! I’m Starl1ght.

So much of my life has been shaped by gaming and the community that came with it. While most of my gaming background is in competitive gaming and esports, I grew up playing on Xbox. I’m beyond excited to be a part of the Xbox Ambassadors team!

Gaming was (and still is) one of my favorite hobbies and something near and dear to my heart. While I’m competitive I still enjoy all kinds of games, especially indie RPG’s and narrative driven ones. Some of my favorite games right now are Destiny 2 and Hades. Whenever I’m not playing games I enjoy reading, making cosplays, and skiing throughout the beautiful Pacific Northwest.

As a part of the Xbox Ambassadors team, I’ll be announcing changes, features as well as handling the seasonal challenges and rewards. I hope to see you all around and say hi 😊
